

KMC (Kuei Meng) International Inc. (“the Company”)
Rules of Procedure for Board of Directors Meetings

Article 1

To establish a strong governance system and sound supervisory capabilities for the Company’s board of directors and to strengthen management capabilities, these Rules are adopted pursuant to Article 2 of the Regulations Governing Procedure for Board of Directors Meetings of Public Companies.

Article 2

With respect to the board of directors meetings (“Board Meeting”) of the Company, the main agenda items, working procedures, require content of meeting minutes, public announcements and other compliance requirements shall be handled in accordance with the provisions of these Rules.

Article 3

The board of directors shall meet at least quarterly.

A notice of the reason for convening a Board Meeting shall be given to each director no later than 7 days before the meeting is convened. In emergency circumstances, however, the Board Meeting may be called on shorter notice.

The notice to be given under the preceding paragraph may be effected by means of electronic transmission with the prior consent of the recipients. All matters set out in the subparagraphs of Article 12, paragraph 1, shall be specified in the notice of the reasons for calling a Board Meeting; none of those matters may be raised by an extraordinary motion except in the case of an emergency or legitimate reason.

Article 4

The designated unit responsible for the board meetings of the Company shall be President Office.

The unit responsible for Board Meetings shall draft agenda items and prepare sufficient meeting materials, and shall deliver them together with the notice of the meeting.

A director who is of the opinion that the meeting materials provided are insufficient may request their supplementation by the unit responsible for Board Meetings. If a director is of the opinion that materials concerning any proposal are insufficient in content, the deliberation of such proposal may be postponed by a resolution of the board of directors.

Article 5

When a Board Meeting is held, an attendance book shall be provided for signing-in by attending directors.

Directors shall attend Board Meetings in person. A director unable to attend in person may appoint another director to attend the meeting in his or her place in accordance with the Company's articles of incorporation articles of incorporation. Attendance by videoconference will be deemed attendance in person.

A director who appoints another director to attend a Board Meeting shall in each instance issue a proxy form stating the scope of authorization with respect to the reasons for convening the meeting.

The proxy referred to in paragraph 2 may be the appointed proxy of only one person.

Article 6

A board meeting shall be held at the premises and during the business hours of the Company, or at a place and time convenient for all directors to attend and suitable for holding board meetings.

Article 7

Board meetings shall be convened and chaired by the chairperson of the board. However, with respect to the first meeting of each newly elected board of directors, it shall be called and chaired by the director that received votes representing the largest portion of voting rights at the shareholders meeting in which the directors were elected; if two or more directors are so entitled to convene the meeting, they shall select from among themselves one director to serve as chair.

When the chairperson of the board is on leave or for any reason unable to exercise the powers of chairperson, the vice chairperson shall act in place of the chairperson; if there is no vice chairperson or the vice chairperson is also on leave or for any reason unable to exercise the powers of vice chairperson, the chairperson shall appoint one of the managing directors to act, or, if there are no managing directors, one of the directors shall be appointed to act as chair. If no such designation is made by the chairperson, the managing directors or directors shall select one person from among themselves to serve as chair.

Article 8

When a Board Meeting is held, the designated unit responsible for the Board Meetings shall furnish the attending directors with relevant material for ready reference.

As merited by the content of a proposal to be put forward at a Board Meeting, personnel from a relevant department or a subsidiary may be notified to attend the meeting as nonvoting participants.

When necessary, certificated public accountants, attorneys, or other professionals retained by the Company may also be invited to attend as non-voting participants and to make explanatory statements, provided that they shall leave the meeting when deliberation or voting takes place.

The chair shall call the Board Meeting to order at the appointed meeting time and when more than one-half of all the directors are in attendance. If one-half of all the directors are not in attendance at the appointed meeting time, the chair may announce postponement of the meeting time, provided that no more than two such postponements may be made and the total hours of the postponement shall not longer than one hour. If the quorum is still not met after two postponements, the chair shall reconvene the meeting in accordance with the procedures in Article 3, paragraph 2. The number of "all directors" as used in the preceding paragraph and in Article 16, paragraph 2, subparagraph 2 shall be counted as the number of directors then actually in office.

Article 9

Proceedings of a Board Meeting shall be recorded in their entirety in audio or video, and the recording shall be retained for a minimum of five years. The record may be retained in electronic form. If any litigation arises with respect to a resolution of a Board Meeting before the end of the retention period of the preceding paragraph, the relevant audio or video record shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation. Where a Board Meeting is held by videoconference, the audio or video documentation of the meeting constitutes part of the meeting minutes and shall be retained for the duration of the existence of the Company

Article 10

Agenda items for regular Board Meetings of the Company shall include at least the following:

1. Matters to be reported:

- (1) Minutes of the last meeting and actions taken.
- (2) Important financial and business matters.
- (3) Internal audit activities.
- (4) Other important matters to be reported.

2. Matters for discussion:

- (1) Items for continued discussion from the last meeting.
- (2) Items for discussion at this meeting.

3. Extraordinary motions.

Article 11

A Board Meeting shall follow the agenda given in the meeting notice. However, the agenda may be changed with the approval of a majority of directors in attendance at the Board Meeting. The chair may not declare the meeting closed without the approval of a majority of directors in attendance at the meeting. At any time during the course of a Board Meeting, if the number of directors sitting at the meeting does not constitute a majority of the attending directors, then upon motion by the directors sitting at the meeting, the chair shall declare a suspension of the meeting, in which case Article 8, paragraph 3 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 12

The matters listed below as they relate to the Company shall be raised for discussion at a board meeting:

1. The Company's business plan.
2. Each quarter of the financial report and Annual financial report.
3. Adoption or amendment of an internal control system pursuant to Article 14-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act ("Act").
4. Adoption or amendment, pursuant to Article 36-1 of the Act, of handling procedures for material financial or business transactions, such as the acquisition or disposal of assets, derivatives trading, loans of funds to others, and endorsements or guarantees for others.
5. The offering, issuance, or private placement of equity-type securities.
6. The appointment or discharge of a financial, accounting, or internal audit officer.
7. A donation to a related party or a major donation to a non-related party, provided that a public-interest donation of disaster relief that is made for a major natural disaster may be submitted to the following board of directors meeting for retroactive recognition.
8. The discussion and review of mergers and acquisitions.
9. Any matter required by Article 14-3 of the Act or any other law, regulation, or by law to be approved by resolution at a shareholders' meeting or to be submitted to a Boarding Meeting, or any such significant matter as may be prescribed by the competent authority.

The term "related party" in subparagraph 7 of the preceding paragraph means a related party as defined in the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers. The term "major donation to a non-related party" means an individual donation, or cumulative donations within a 1-year period to a single recipient, at an amount of NTD100 million or more, or at an amount equal to or greater than 1 percent of net operating revenue or 5 percent of paid-in capital as stated in the CPA-attested financial report for the most recent year.

The term "within a 1-year period" in the preceding paragraph means a period of 1 year calculated retroactively from the date on which the current board of directors meeting is convened. Amounts already submitted to and passed by a resolution of the board are exempted from inclusion in the calculation.

With respect to a matter that, under Article 14-3 of the Securities and Exchange Act, must be approved by resolution at a Board Meeting, any and all independent directors of the Company shall attend the meeting in person or appoint another independent director to attend the meeting as proxy. If an independent director objects to or expresses reservations about such a matter, it shall be recorded in the board meeting minutes; if an independent director intends to express an objection or reservations but is unable to attend the meeting in person, then unless there is a legitimate reason to do otherwise, that director shall issue a written opinion in advance, which shall be recorded in the board meeting minutes.

Article 13

When the chair at a Board Meeting is of the opinion that a proposal has been discussed sufficiently to put it to a vote, the chair may announce the discussion closed and call a vote. When a proposal comes to a vote at a Board Meeting, if no attending director voices an objection following an inquiry by the chair, the proposal will be deemed approved. If there is an objection following an inquiry by the chair, the proposal shall be brought to a vote. One voting method for proposals at a Board Meeting shall be selected by the chair from among those below, provided that when an attending director has an objection, the chair shall seek the opinion of the majority to make a decision:

1. A show of hands or a vote by voting machine.
2. A roll call vote.
3. A vote by ballot.
4. A vote by a method selected at the Company's discretion.

"Attending directors," as used in the preceding two paragraphs, does not include directors that may not exercise voting rights pursuant to Article 15, paragraph 1.

Article 14

Except where otherwise provided by the Securities and Exchange Act and the Company Act, the passage of a proposal at a board meeting shall require the approval of a majority of the directors in attendance at a board of directors meeting attended by a majority of all directors.

When there is an amendment or alternative to a proposal, the chair shall present the amended or alternative proposal together with the original proposal and decide the order in which they will be put to a vote. If any one among them is passed, the other proposals shall then be deemed rejected and no further voting on them shall be required.

If a vote on a proposal requires monitoring and counting personnel, the chair shall appoint such personnel, providing that all monitoring personnel shall be directors. Voting results shall be made known on-site immediately and recorded in writing.

Article 15

If a director or a juristic person that the director represents is an interested party in relation to an agenda item, the director shall state the important aspects of the interested party relationship at the respective meeting. When the relationship is likely to prejudice the interest of this Corporation, that director may not participate in discussion or voting on that agenda item and shall recuse himself or herself from the discussion or the voting on the item, and may not exercise voting rights as proxy for another director.

Where a director is prohibited by the preceding paragraph from exercising voting rights with respect to a resolution at a board meeting, the provisions of Article 180, paragraph 2 of the Company Act apply mutatis mutandis in accordance with Article 206, paragraph 3 of the same Act.

Article 16

Discussions at a board meeting shall be recorded in the meeting minutes, and the minutes shall fully and accurately state the matters listed below:

1. The meeting session (or year) and the time and place of the meeting.
2. The Name of the chair.
3. The directors' attendance at the meeting, including the names and number of directors in attendance, excused, and absent.
4. The names and titles of those attending the meeting as nonvoting participants.
5. The name of the minutes taker.
6. The matters reported at the meeting.
7. Agenda items: the method of resolution and the result for each proposal; a summary of the comments made by directors, experts, or other persons; the name of any director that is an interested party as referred to in paragraph 1 of the preceding article, an explanation of the important aspects of the relationship of interest, the reasons that the director was required or not required to enter recusal, and the status of their recusal; opinions expressing objections or reservations at the meeting that were included in records or stated in writing; and any opinion issued in writing by an independent director pursuant to Article 12, paragraph 4.
8. Extraordinary motions: the name of the mover, the method of resolution and the result, a summary of the comments of any director, expert, or other person; the name of any director that is an interested party as referred to in paragraph 1 of the preceding article, an explanation of the important aspects of the relationship of interest, the reasons why the director was required or not required to enter recusal, and the status of their recusal; and their objections or reservations and any recorded or written statements.
9. Other matters required to be recorded.

The occurrence of any of the following circumstances, with respect to a resolution passed at a Board Meeting, shall be stated in the meeting minutes and shall be publicly announced and filed on the website of the Market Observation Post System designated by the Financial Supervisory Commission, within two days from the date of the meeting:

1. Any objection or expression of reservations by an independent director expresses of which there is a record or written statement.

2. A resolution is adopted with the approval of two-thirds or more of all directors, without having been passed by the audit committee of the Company.

The attendance book constitutes parts of the minutes for each Board Meeting and shall be retained for the duration of the existence of the Company.

The minutes of a Board Meeting shall bear the signature or seal of both the meeting chair and the minute taker, and a copy of the minutes shall be distributed to each director within twenty days after the meeting. The minutes shall be deemed important company records and appropriately preserved during the existence of the Company. The meeting minutes of paragraph 1 may be produced and distributed in electronic form.

Article 17

With the exception of matters required to be discussed at a board meeting under Article 12, paragraph 1, the board of directors appoints chairman to exercise the powers of the board in accordance with applicable laws and regulations or the Company articles of incorporation, and the authorized matters listed below:

1. Check and approval of critical contracts.
2. Check and approval of real estate mortgage loan and others.
3. Check and approval of the acquisition or disposal of general assets and the real estate of the Company.
4. Assignment of the directors and supervisors of the investee company.
5. Check and approval of the record date for capital increase or capital reduction, record date for distributing cash dividends, record date for stock subscription, and the modification to the dividend payout ratio.

Article 18

The provisions of Article 2, Article 3, paragraph 2, Articles 4 to 6, Articles 8 to 11, and Articles 13 to 16 apply, mutatis mutandis, to the Company's meetings of the board of managing directors, provided that when meetings of the board of managing directors are held at regular intervals of 7 days or less, notices of such meetings may be given to each managing director before 2 days before the meeting.

Article 19

These Rules of Procedure shall be adopted by the approval of meeting of the board of directors and shall be reported to the shareholders meeting. The board of directors may be authorized to adopt, by resolution, any future amendments to these Rules.
